For Immediate Release:

MARK FIRMIN TO HEAD ACOM'S CHANNELS DISTRIBUTION PROGRAM

Long Beach, Calif., January 8 – ACOM Solutions, Inc. has named Mark Firmin to the position of vice president - business development, with responsibility for all channel and partner activity for the company's Payment Systems, Enterprise Commerce and iSeries/400 Divisions, it was announced today by Patrick McMahon, president.

ACOM addresses the mid-to-large business market with modular MICR laser check and electronic payment solutions, document output management solutions, and ebusiness-enablement solutions for EDI/XML and WebForms. Previously, Firmin was vice president of sales at the company's iSeries/400 Division, based in Atlanta, where he achieved significant success in establishing partnership relations with numerous general and specialized software solution providers for the iSeries/400 user community.

"Mark Firmin has demonstrated exceptional skill at establishing and maintaining partnerships and alliances that are highly productive both for ACOM and for our developer partners," McMahon said. "ACOM has broadened its scope significantly over the past year and we are now entering new market sectors with an array of solutions that permit enterprises to streamline their business operations and to compete more effectively in their respective fields.

"ACOM believes that partnership marketing not only benefits our own company though accelerated market entry, but that the value-add we bring to the offerings of our partners enables them to attract more new customers as well as enhance existing customer satisfaction by providing more complete business solutions."

Companies interested in partnering with ACOM can reach Firmin at 405-286-1403, or by email: mfirmin@acom.com.
